National Constitution Day celebrations under the auspices of NCC at SITAM college

The National Constitution Day celebrations were held on 26th November in a grand manner at SITAM college under the local Gajula Rega.

Dr. Majji Sasibhushana Rao, Director of Satya Vidya Sansthans, was present as the chief guest of the program and gave a special speech. Patriotic songs, kahoot quiz and essay writing competitions were organized on the occasion and the winners were presented with prizes by the hands of Dr. Majji Sasibhushana Rao. He said, "It is necessary for everyone to understand the values provided by the Constitution of India to our society, the rights and duties provided to the citizens.

The responsibility of taking India forward is on the youth," he said. Sitam College Principal Dr. D.V. Ramamurthy said, "This program has helped a lot in the objectives of increasing the awareness of the Constitution and instilling love for the country among the students."

Later, he took a special pledge with the students reminding them of their adherence to the Constitution. Head of H&BS Mrs. Dr. K Srilatha, Lt. M. Varalakshmi, Lt. Prashanth, C.S.O.K. Satyanarayana, faculty members, students and NCC cadets participate
